Leaders in the Practice of Good Governance

The Chartered Governance Institute of Canada (CGIC) is a division of The Chartered Governance Institute - the international professional body for Chartered Governance Professionals.

CGIC is the only global qualifying organization in Canada that grants Chartered status, offering international professional designations - ACG and FCG - by providing the qualification framework and professional education pathway to qualify Chartered Governance Professionals.

CGIC has two renowned education programs to support governance professionals at all stages of their career:

International Qualifying Program

Internationally recognized certification for Chartered Secretaries and Chartered Governance Professionals.

Directors' Education and Accreditation Program

Designation recognizing enhanced competencies in governance, finance, strategy and risk management.
